adult classes

A Drawing

Intro to Drawing and Painting

A good drawing makes a good painting. Learning how to “see” is the key, and yes, you can do it under the guidance of a patient, skilled teacher. We’ll work from the still life as we cover basic color mixing, painting techniques and composition. Includes materials fee for some supplies. With Zach Pelham
Thursdays, 11:30 am – 2:00 pm
$190 m, $205 nm

Drawing on Nature: The Art of Flowers & Plants

Learn to capture the beauty of flowers and plants in your drawings. Beginning with basic botanical drawing techniques using pencil and ink wash, we’ll progress to work in watercolor and colored pencil. We’ll explore both realistic representation and creative interpretation. Close observation and composition will be emphasized. Open to all skill levels. With Erica Beade
Wednesdays, 7:00 – 9:00pm
$165 m, $180 nm

Open Life Drawing Studio

Draw from the figure, water based painting and drawing media. No instruction or supplies provided, except easels and drawing boards. A studio monitor will be present to facilitate each session.
Sundays, 1:00 – 4:00 pm
$105 m, $120 nm

Drawing for the Slightly Nervous Beginner

Are you intrigued by drawing but don’t know where to begin? Come learn the basics of representational drawing with a nurturing teacher who will guide you through the process. Learn about proportions, shadow, line and texture using pencil and charcoal in a supportive setting. With Katherine Miller
Wednesdays, 7:00 – 9:30 pm
$180m, $195 nm

Sketchbooking

We’ll meet at a cafe, a street corner, or a park bench and draw the passersby, the buildings, the gardens. It’s a great way to relax the mind, sharpen drawing skills and connect with others who like to draw. We’ll learn how to capture the essence of the scene without getting caught up in the details. We’ll meet on locations nearby or in the studio to practice our skills. With Amy MacDonald
Thursdays, 9:30 – 11:30 am
$165 m, $180 nm

Fluid Drawing

If you are new to drawing, or a bit rusty and want to dive back in, try this innovative drawing method. Through a series of quick, observational drawings of a variety of subjects, you’ll learn to loosen up, draw with fluidity and develop a committed line. Materials are a sketchbook, black gel pens, ink and a small brush. With Tamar Etingen
Tuesdays, 7:00 – 9:00 pm
$165 m, $180 nm

Expressive Figure Drawing

Expand your ideas about drawing the figure. Try out short exercises to find new ways of using charcoal, graphite, and eraser to explore your unique style of making marks on the paper. Anatomy will be discussed as a foundation to understanding what we see. With Barbara Zeles
Tuesdays, 7:00 – 9:30 pm
$270 m, $285 nm

No Classes:

10/12, Columbus Day
10/16 - 18, Arlington Open Studios
11/11, Veteran’s Day
11/25-29, Thanksgiving

Intro to Watercolor

Learn the basics of watercolor, a medium known for its ability to capture light. You'll focus on mixing colors and creating a composition based on the still life. You'll learn techniques that you can apply to a variety of subjects from an experienced watercolor artist. With Crist Filer

Mondays, 7:00 – 9:30 pm

$180 m, $195 nm

Beginner's Mind Watercolor

"Beginner's mind" means having an attitude of openness, eagerness, and lack of preconceptions when studying a subject. Come to your watercolors with a fresh eye and learn what stunning and personal results you can achieve! We'll focus on color, composition, and content. For all levels. With Kaetlyn Wilcox

Thursdays, 7:00 – 9:30 pm

$180 m, $195 nm

Advanced Watercolor Technique

Take your watercolor painting skills to the next level in this challenging, lively class. Work from fresh natural materials, photos and complex still-lives that will inspire you to create beautiful and original works of art while you explore paint choices, composition and texture. You'll learn from critiques, demonstrations, and lots of painting time from an experienced instructor and watercolor artist. With Diane Fiedler

Mondays, 7:00 – 9:30 pm

$200 m, $215 nm

Intuitive Painting

This class is designed for students who are ready to explore a more personal art making experience. If you are ready to move beyond traditional subjects and approaches, this is the right class for you! Through stimulating exercises, you'll widen your painting horizons using acrylics, watercolors, or water-based oil paints, as your intuition guides your eye and hand. All levels. With Adria Arch

Mondays, 7:00 – 9:30 pm

$180 m, $195 nm

Inspired by the Masters

Add some art history to your drawing and painting experience. This class will expose you to works by artists from the Renaissance to the present day. Each week we'll look at artworks, see a demonstration of a drawing or painting technique, and have plenty of time to try it out while honing our observational skills. We'll learn to draw on toned paper using conte crayon and charcoal, try out watercolor painting (realist and abstract applications), and explore paper collage, all while learning fascinating tidbits about the lives and work of famous artists. No prior art experience necessary, most materials will be supplied. With Maryellen Sakura

Thursdays, 7:00 – 9:30 pm

$190 m, $205 nm

"Green" Painting Techniques

Love the look of oil paints but want to move to a more green painting process? Learn how to use painting products that clean up with water to get oil paint-like results. The still life will be our inspiration for in-class exercises while we learn color mixing, paint application, and composition. All paint will be provided. With Katherine Miller

Tuesdays, 9:30 am – noon

$190 m, $205 nm

Plein Air Painting

"Plein Air" painters work on location to quickly capture the fleeting light effects that occur in nature. The initial painting is completed on location in two to three hours before the quality of the light changes. We'll paint fall scenes around Arlington using acrylics or oils under the guidance of an accomplished painter and nurturing teacher. We'll work in the studio if the weather is wet. With Amy MacDonald

Thursdays, 9:30 – 12:30 am

$190 m, $205 nm

Encaustic Workshop

Encaustic painting uses heated beeswax mixed with colored pigments to create a unique surface. This is one of the oldest painting techniques (ancient Egypt!), and it has received renewed interest by many contemporary artists. You can layer transparent colors over paper collage elements, scratch and scrape through surfaces and lots more. The results are rich and beautiful! Learn the basics and how to get started with this process in your home or studio. Materials are provided. With Katherine Miller

Two Sundays, 10/4 and 10/11, 1:00 – 5:00 pm

$100 m, $115 nm

CA Mixed Media

Art Sampler

Ever wish you could just try out a variety of media such as oil painting, collage, acrylics, watercolors, and pastels to see what medium feels right for you? Work with an encouraging and versatile teacher who will de-mystify these art supplies. All materials provided. With Amy MacDonald

Thursdays, 7:00 – 9:00 pm

$190 m, $205 nm

CA Sculpture

Ceramics

Have you always admired beautiful, handmade ceramic pottery and sculpture? You can learn to make your own pots, cups, bowls, and more in this fun and challenging class. Work with experienced instructors as they show you how to craft clay with your own unique look. Explore texturing, glazes and more. Beginner and intermediate levels.

Section 1: With Eileen de Rosas

Mondays, 6:30 – 9:30 pm

Section 2: With Dorie Zackin

Tuesdays, 6:30 – 9:30 pm

$265 m, $280

Clay Figure Studies

Explore the gesture of the body and its underlying structure while discovering your individual style of sculpting in clay. We'll create small studies (less than 1' in height) and work on both short and long poses. With Barbara Zeles

Wednesday 7:00 – 9:30

$355 m, $370 nm

CA Writing

Second Cup Writing Workshop

Jumpstart your weekend in a supportive group of prose writers. Whether you write fiction or nonfiction, essays or short stories, come share your work for group feedback. We will begin each session with a short writing exercise and share strategies for sending out work, dealing with rejection, and making time to write. Bring a notebook, a pen and your second cup of coffee. With Alisa Wolf

6 Saturdays, 10:00 am – 12:00 pm

$120 m, $135 nm

Writing Children's Books

Bring your great ideas and favorite books to share and inspire! In-class writing exercises will spark your creativity and help you craft your story. We'll explore the basics of children's book writing, from creating lively characters and zany plots, to getting your project published. With Margaret Muirhead

Wednesdays, 7:00 – 9:00 pm

$155 m, $170 nm

KEY: m - member of ACA nm - nonmember

Write Now!

Having trouble finding time to write? Struggling for ideas to get you started? This course will help you get pen to page. Through a series of in-class exercises, we will work on several aspects of the writer's craft: technique in fiction, including creating character, writing dialogue and selecting point-of-view; how a writer finds and hones a literary voice; and facing and overcoming the bad habits and voices in our heads that keep us from doing the writing we long to do. Come to infuse new life into your writing. Writers of all levels welcome. Bring a notebook, a pen, and a desire to write during class time. With Alisa Wolf

Wednesdays, 7:00 – 9:00 pm
$155 m, $170 nm

A Basketry

Coiled Fiber Basketry

Come learn coiling, an ancient and widely practiced form of basketry. You can learn the basic skills right away, and eventually adapt them to incorporate a range of materials and additional techniques. The main focus of the class will be on closed coiling with yarn of various fibers, and incorporating beads, wire and other embellishments for a mixture of shapes and textures. You'll also learn to find and use natural and recycled materials in the wonderful baskets you will make! Supplies not included. With Jeanne Wildman

4 Tuesdays, 7:00 – 9:00 pm
$80 m, $95 nm

A Jewelry

Silversmithing and More

We'll learn the basics of making beautiful, one of a kind silver jewelry. Projects may include pendants, earrings, brooches or rings. We will also be making colorful ceramic beads to string. $20 material fee, payable to instructor. Limited to students 18 and up. With Dorie Zackin

Thursdays, 6:30 – 9:30 pm
$265 m, $280 nm

A Bookmaking

Unique Bookmaking

You'll learn a variety of book structures while considering the ways in which image, text and form can work together to create meaning. Learn to make one page folded books, pamphlets, Japanese and accordion binding, flag books and more.

A great class for teachers, collage artists, and anyone who loves hand made books! With Lisa Olson

Tuesdays, 7:00 – 9:00 pm
$165 m, $180 nm

A Photography

Through the Lens:

Digital and Experimental Photography

Are you excited by the many possibilities in photography, both digital and old-school? From Photoshop to instant film (yes, that's right, Fuji still makes it!) we'll learn the basics of lighting and composition, Photoshop manipulation, photo collage and more. You must have your own camera. Some materials will be provided.

With Chris LeGare

Wednesdays, 7:00 – 9:30 pm
$180 m, 195 nm

A Printmaking

Printmaking – Hot OFF the Press!

If you love to paint, you need to try printmaking! There are so many ways to make beautiful, one of a kinds and multiples without an expensive press. Work with experienced printmakers to try out gelatin monoprinting, Pronto plate, collagraphy, and screenprinting. See what each process can do to enrich your experience of making art. Most materials included.

With Tamar Etingen and Adria Arch

Registration Information

Four Ways to Register

- Call us at 781-648-6220
- Mail your registration form
- Visit our office
- Online at acarts.org

Parking & Access

Please respect our neighbors by parking off-street in the parking lot, and by obeying parking signs. Saturday and evening students should enter the building through the door closest to the parking lot, on the Tufts St. side of the building. The Arlington Center for the Arts is wheelchair accessible. Call ahead for instructions.

Sold Out Classes

If a class is full at the time of your registration, you will be notified and placed on the waiting list.

Joining A Class After It Starts

You may join a class after the first meeting with instructor's permission. Classes are not prorated.

Membership Discount

To receive a Member's discount for a course, your membership must be current through the semester of the course you are taking. Membership dues may be paid at the time of registration.

Media Release

Occasionally, ACA takes photographs of classes and VAPs for use in catalogs, advertising, and promotional materials. If you do not wish to have photographs of you or your children used by ACA, please notify the office before your class begins.

Inclement Weather

Classes may be cancelled and rescheduled due to weather conditions. To find out if your class is running during inclement weather, please call the office at (781) 648-6220 for a recorded message or check www.myfoxboston.com. If Arlington public schools are closed, our day classes are cancelled. Please call us to determine if evening classes will be held.

Refunds & Cancellations

The ACA reserves the right to cancel classes, change times or locations, and substitute instructors. If a class is cancelled due to low enrollment, you will be notified by telephone and will receive a full refund.

- Ten days before class or vacation program starts: full refund, less $25 processing fee.
- Less than 10 days before class or vacation program starts, 50% refund, less $25 processing fee.
- No refunds for workshops.
- No refunds after classes begin.
- If you find a class unsatisfactory, a credit for another ACA class will be issued.
- No refunds for extended day.

Scholarship Assistance

Limited scholarships are available, based on financial need. To apply, please send a written request, along with your most recent federal tax form, at least two weeks prior to the beginning of class/program. Please consider contributing to our scholarship fund in order to increase access to the arts for all. Information on supporting the scholarship fund is on registration form.
